In such cases, the old identification card and the acknowledgment slip will be retained in the depot (and on both of which the holder's signature will be necessary) will be handed over to the bearer under acknowledgment. The holder of the ration card should thereupon sign both on the ration card and on the counterfoil and return both parts of the card. It must be distinctly understood that the office will accept no responsibility whatever for loss or misplacement of ration cards sent through bearers under the above arrangements.

7. As a rule, rations have been allowed for all the relatives as declared by the house-holders except where the number of members declared is found to be exaggerated. Regarding non-relatives diverse claims have been made for friends, guests, servants, cooks, drivers, pujaries, archaks, vokkalagittis, purohits, wara, bhikshas, etc., as permanent inmates. Such claims have been suitably cut down. Holders of ration cards who for any reason desire to get their cards amended may file an application addressed to the Rationing Officer, Molakalmuru Town, stating their grievances but quoting three numbers (1) their identification card number, (2) the Ration Census number, and (3) the new card number when the matter will be worked into.
